

5500 BC Geograp 2600 BC Cuneifo 1792 BC Babylon 1300s BC Assyri 400 BC Phonecia

3000 BC Sumer 2500 BC Sumeria 1500 BC Hitite 539 BC Chaldean

Entry Details

5500 BC Geograp Geography and Mesopotamia:

- 1.The Mesopotamian area has two rivers flowing through it, the Tigris and Euphrates. These rivers sometimes flooded therefore, giving many nutrients to the soil.

539 BC Chaldean Chaldeans and NebuchadnezzarII:

1. Hanging gardens that grew on terraces. 2. Calenda based on phases of the moon.

3000 BC Sumer Sumer:

1. The purpose of a ziggurat was the mark the middle of a city. 2. The political units used in Sumer were city-states. They were units that had their own government.

400 BC Phonecia Phonecians:

1. Phonecian alphabet and expert sailors

2600 BC Cuneifo Cuneiform:

1. Cuneiform was generally used for keeping track of business accounts or other records. This could also be used for works on law and grammar, along with works of literature.

2500 BC Sumeria Sumerian Achievements:

1. Four Sumerian achievements include: cuneiform, a math system based on 60, geometry, and the first wheel.

1792 BC Babylon Babylon and Hammurabi:

1. One example could be and eye for and eye.

1500 BC Hitite Hitite Culture:

1. They used Sumerian cuneiform to write their language.
2. Their most notable achievement was using ironworking